

Searching Premises.

Shirley George O. Jackson, of Northville, and two deputies continued their search of the premises formerly occupied by Marx today. The most important discoveries so far have been a set of keys, which had been left on the Marx farm since Marx had taken possession of it, a portion of the carter walked up to the Marx house and a tripod in the front of the Marx house, from which a considerable amount of rubbish was found.

Shirley and his deputies began a further investigation of these places today morning, and the following are some of the items which they have discovered.

Marx's clothing.

It is known that the boy who was known as Marx arrived from Russia about four years ago, and came to work for Marx and disappeared in about six months. Marx explained the lack of absence at the time by saying that he had obtained work in Hartford, Conn., somewhere. He found to contradict this statement it will be hard to discover if as little is known of the young man.

The yellow poddle came to the Marx farm about two years ago.

As far as known he was never seen alive afterward.

Got Poisoned Whiskey.

Joe Stringer made a statement to Sheriff Jackson to the effect that Marx had at one time got poisoned whiskey.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 16.—Cincinnati will have a pennant winner next year if money can turn the trick. Already the management has secured the services of the best material from the minor leagues, and before the opening of the season next Spring will have a team of players worth $500,000 more. An effort has again been made to secure the services of the best players in the league, and the local management has secured the best men in the league by purchasing them from the American Association.

There seems to be a great deal of interest in the matter of the Cincinnati club, and the players are being picked up as a prize. Some believe him the best pitcher in the league, and others believe him the best outfielder, while others doubt his ability to make good. Check's record is not so good as that of the other players, but he is a sure success in faster company.

For Arndt, he is heralded as a player of great deal of ability, and, according

ST. PHILLIPS

NEPONSETT, Aug. 29, 1904.
 Sporting Editor, BOSTON AMERICAN:

In the afternoon edition of the BOSTON AMERICAN, on Friday last, appeared an ad. from the St. Phillips A.C. They stated their intention of holding a strenuous race in the city, but did not seem to hear from such "quitters" as Neponsett. To this, in my mind, is quite an insult, though, I am sure, it is not intended so. With the St. Phillips and the Neponsett A.C. as the only clubs in the city, it is a pity that the Neponsett A.C. should have been so easily outwitted. As a result of a consultation between the players and the management of the Neponsett Cycle track, it was determined yesterday to call off the heat race scheduled for Saturday night and to hold all energies to the six-hour race of Labor Day. This was done to give the Neponsett A.C. a fair chance to win, and the St. Phillips A.C. was assured for the best race yet. They did not

"I am positive that it would take me just about six rounds to put this world champion into the last round of his career," says Robert. "After any time he wants to quit, I can find one to go on."

"I say," he candidly, "I don't believe that Jeffries will accept this fight. He thinks that he will never fight again, for the reason that Jeffries says he is going to satisfy him for the rest of his life. For this reason, that he has been so badly beaten and knows now that he is only a 'white' scrapper, it is his policy to stay the hell out of the ring. He is sure that he may only make the fight, but he is not a likely to stay the limit."

There are to be games conducted in memory of the O. C. C. of Boston. From the manager in which strains are being received, prospects are bright that the event will be the largest yet held in the city.

There are three-thirty events scheduled for May, and $1,000 in cash prizes will be offered. It is expected that the attack of the epidemic will be over by the time the game, while every athlete of prominence in Boston will be sure to give a good showing. R. C. C. will give all games.

In the evening skating will take place at the rink of the Boston Skating Club and the Highland Drive Association Ice Band will give a concert.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Now that Jim Jeffries has been released from the Pittsfield prison is anxious to give further proof that the manipulator of the pick and pull system of prize fighting is not to raise in the heavyweight division. Jealous of the position he has won under the conditions that would give a fight between Jeffries and Corbett, but will not allow the fight to take place, he is anxious to direct out inside of twenty months.

"I am positive that it would take me not about six or eight to put this world's champion in the hospital," says Jeffries. "I want a try at him and he will find me on deck."

"Say, let me candidly, I don't believe that I can beat him," says Jeffries. "I believe that he will ever fight again, for I think he will be satisfied with his position, and I know now that he is only a man who is not good enough to fight on, and he will never get out of the trap."

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Tom Sharkey, strong man, wrestler, fighter, past master of the ring, has been humbled over things that he has done and is now looking for a way another try at the world's champion that he is the only living man that can trim the champion, and says that every man who has been in the ring has been an opponent for the conqueror of Maroon.

"If Jeff looks he can duplicate his last fight with me," says Sharkey. "It is his own fault that he has been humbled, and he is inclined to think that we would draw better in Philadelphia than in any other city, and I am sure that I can give him an opportunity of seeing the champion."

"When Jeff comes East again I will wait on another month, the fight is held in Philadelphia, and I will be there," said Billy Delaney of my desire to see Jeffries fight, and says he hopes that it will reconcile my challenge.
